MEETING NOTES FOR JULY 2018

6:01 PM MEETING CALLED TO ORDER

TOPICS:

Club bylaws are completed and the Board passed

Outstanding obligations- There is a student that continues to have an outstanding obligation but would like to return to team. Without obligations being met the student will not be permitted to return.

Flyers/Advertisement- Flyers have been made to hand out at Braves are Back. The site Bravesrowing.com has been purchased for $8 for the next 2 years.

Use of equipment- MJ the assistant coach will use a team boat in the Masters race in Sarasota. It will be transported on Edgewater's trailer. All waivers will be signed. Boone will get the opportunity to advertise the club in exchange for the boat's use.

City park contract- Mrs. Stekmashenko will be meeting with the manager to discuss the club's obligations to the park.

Lunch was taken out to the parks employees to kick off this relationship between the park and our rowing team.

All students will be obligated to purchase a single year park pass at minimum.

Rowers will be obligated to complete community service hours for the park throughout the year. (in the past there has been a 200 hour obligation)

Volunteer hours- The seniors that came out and helped with the summer program will have the opportunity to gain volunteer hours. They will need to see Mrs. Stelmashenko for the documentation needed to turn into the school.

Treasurer- The Treasurer's report was reviewed. Current expenses were reviewed. There are 2 fundraisers set up for the fall.

Braves are Back- There will be a sign up sent for our rowers and parent to fill volunteer slots. The club will have a boat out for display. Parents can will be able to get all needed forms to row, information about rowing for free for a week as well as information about our annual Breakfast at the Boathouse.

Regatta schedules- The draft regatta schedule was reviewed for Fall and Spring.

Fall:
